

NEWS OF WEEK AT BURNSVILLE

May 30-41

A number of relatives and friends gathered at the Walter Kennelly home Sunday and pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kennelly on their 43rd wedding anniversary. A delicious supper was served to the guests and the evening was spent visiting and renewing old happenings. The four attendants at the wedding 43 years ago were present at the celebration, as follows: Thos. Kennelly, Jim Scott, Mrs. P. J. Dempsey of St. James, Mrs. Margaret Smith of St. Paul. Thos present were:

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dempsey of St. James, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Connelly of Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCann and son John, J. J. McCann, Mr. and Mrs. John Connelly of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Kennelly, Mrs. Nora Nicholson, Jim Scott, Mrs. Mary Frowley, Mrs. Ann Gallagher, Kate and Frank Gallagher, Mrs. Johanna Lannon, Mrs. Margaret Smith of St. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. James McNearney, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Slater and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kline of South St. Paul and Jim Ryan of Edina.

Mrs. Frank Visnovec was a St. Paul visitor on Friday.

Mrs. Walter Kennelly attended a shower at the John Corrigan home at Rosemount in honor of Marie Fox. Miss Fox will become the bride of John McAndrew on June 16.

Jim Ryan and Rosella Kennelly escaped serious injury Saturday when their car was hit by one driven by Kenneth Nelson of St. Paul on Highway 13 a mile west of Cedar avenue. Nelson's car was rounding a curve and Ryan swung over to avoid a "headon". The Nelson car hit the Ryan car in the side then went in the ditch, resting upside down. Neither of the passengers were hurt.

Don't forget the dance at Sea Girt Inn May 30th.

Turn out for the ball game next Sunday on the home diamond when Burnsville plays the mighty Rosemount team. A 15c charge for all men attending the game.

Burnsville chalked up another win Sunday when they played the Rosemount bluebirds at Rosemount. The score was 14 to 5. Allen and Slater pitched. Ed Tousignant hit a home run. Come out next Sunday and boost for your favorite team when Burnsville and Rosemount meet on the home diamond.

Dorothy Barnes spent Thursday visiting hs folks at Rosemount.

Harold Cederblade is spending a few days at Mille Lacs, fishing.

Mrs. Johanna Lannon of St. Paul spent the week-end at the Wm. Lannon home.
