3-11-65

One of the busiest men in Burnsville the last few weeks has certainly been Joe Kennelly, chairman of "A Night With the Irish."

This effervescent Irishman has completed plans for an evening of entertainment to be held Sunday, March 14, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium, that should warm every Irish heart.

There will be Irish songs, dances, stories, and two genuine Shillelaghs will be given away.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening will be Bishop Elect

Kennelly James Shannon, president of St. Thomas college.

More than 100 people will take part in the show which will include both local and "imported" talent.

Esther Bowles' "Happiness Troupe" will perform. Dancers include Jan Schweich, Tom Kearney, Colleen McMullen, Sharry Cooper, Cindy Schulz, Margo Hamann, Sandra Hilla, Alicia Carey, Bobette Clover, Debbie Anderson, Kristin Nelson and Laurie Bukilla.

The Last Straws, a Sweet Adeline group from Prior Lake, will also appear. Members of the group are Mrs. Cecil Farrell, Mrs. Harold Busse, Mrs. Carl Mickers, and Mrs. Albert White.

Rita Driscoll and Jack Collins of Burnsville will sing. A group of students from St. John's school in Savage will offer some Irish selections under the direction of Sister Aquina.

Mrs. Andy Vaughn, and eight girls will do Irish dances, including the Irish hornpipe.

This is only a sample of the many acts included in the show.

Door prizes, including an RCA color TV and a clock radio will be given away.

The donation at the door is $1 for adults, 50 cents for high school students, and 25 cents for grade school children.

Proceeds from the event will go toward equipment for the new school addition.
